SAMAN AMINZADEH

In a few short years directing commercials Saman Aminzadeh has won multiple British Arrows, 1.4 Awards and been included on the Saaatchi New Creators Showcase.

As part of the director team on the Channel 4 Idents he won the Grand Prix at both Cannes and Ciclope. One of Saman's scenes in the piece includes a Zoroastrian family in a West Yorkshire house, encapsulating his Iranian and Northern English roots in one image.

With a keen eye for casting and design and a love of taking the everyday into the realm of dreams and memories, Saman is on track to be one of advertising's most exciting voices.
